

Pointers for families to consider

1. Family are expected to be co-living with another family in the same unit.
2. Family will be required to work closely with social workers from the shelter for case management and programmes.
3. Family is required to pay shelter related fees on a monthly basis during their stay.